THE GRAND KNIGHT

Dear Brother Knights,

Thank you for coming out to help in many of the activities we had recently. May God continue to reward you for all that you do for the common good of our order. I really appreciate all your contributions to our parish and council. Please let us continue to remain united in our Catholic faith and charity so that we can do great things.

As you know, June 30th is the end of this fraternal year and time to reflect on our council's goals and achievements. As we reflect, let us, individually think of ideas that will improve our council in the meeting the needs of our parish community.

Our major event this month is our council's 40th Anniversary. We will be celebrating with a Dinner/Dance at the Knott's Berry Farm Hotel on Saturday June 8th, I hope you have signed up. We will also be honoring our last two Immediate Past Grand Knights at this event.

Mark your calendar for the following upcoming events:

1. Clergy Night on Friday June 21, 2024, at Christ Cathedral
2. Corporate Communion June 30, 2024, at 8:00 am mass.

Remain blessed.

A Father's Day Love Letter

My Beloved:

As a father has compassion on his children, even so do I have compassion on those who fear Me. I do not treat you as your sins deserve or repay you according to your iniquities. Instead, I have swept away your offenses like a cloud, your sins like the morning mist.

So stop dwelling in the past. You spend too much time reviewing your sins of days gone by. I keep no record of such matters. If I did, you truly would not be able to stand. But I have forgiven you of your sins. ALL of them!

Or do you think that I may have missed something? Don't do this to yourself. You need to know, once and for all, that the blood of Jesus has paid the price for your sins. Confess your sins to Me, rather than rehearsing them to yourself over and over again. Acknowledge your sin to Me and do not cover up your iniquity. Confess your transgressions to Me and I will forgive the guilt of your sin. And I mean all sin.

Do not trivialize the death and sacrifice of My Son with self-condemnation. Instead trust in Jesus and receive forgiveness of your sins through His name

If my Son sets you free, you are free indeed. So forget the former things. Do not dwell on your failings. If I do not remember your sins anymore, then why should you?

From Your Council.....Chancellor

My Dear Brothers,

We are ending another fraternal year. Our 40th Fraternal year. In a few weeks we will begin anew the task of building a stronger council, a more dynamic council. We will continue to serve our Pastor our Parish and our Community.

We will be putting together our events calendar and our budget for the next fraternal year. I ask you to pray about any events that you would like to see the Knights participate in. And also to pray about how your unique talents and experience can help to grow the fruits of our Council.

Would you like to lead prayer events or form an adoration team? Would you like to work with the youth on the Free-throw contest and Essay contest? Would you like to host events for young adults such as a Karaoke night or support our new Deacons on their teaching events this year? Would you like to host a Spaghetti Dinner or a Parish Summer BBQ Potluck? Would you like to support the VBS or Youth formation in some way?

Would you like to build our Fish Fry into an event that rivals our sister Parish events with an expanded menu and dining experience? Do you have ideas for our Fiesta Food booth and how we can improve quality or operation in the booth?

Are you interested in becoming a 4th Degree Knight and being part of the Color Guard? Would you like to participate as an Altar Server at Funerals?

We have the talent and the capacity to blow our spiritual doors off their hinges and experience the grace and joy that comes with serving alongside our brother Knights. As with all good things, it takes time and planning and commitment to get where we want to be.

I am so thankful for and appreciate all of my Brother Knights. I love being a member of this Council and being a member of St. Irenaeus and being a Catholic man. You are some of my dearest friends. Thank you for this truly wonderful Fraternal Year. Let's have another great Fraternal Year 2024/2025.

Vivat Jesus!

COMFORT INN

[Part 2]

By

Frank J. Facke

That evening at the Opening Conference we heard from white-haired Dr. Michael Downey. A respected theologian, Dr. Downey years ago created Advanced Studies in Theology for possible future bishops in Vietnam. Third World countries didn't have nearby inexpensive theology programs. Our St. Irenaeus pastor Father Binh was a member of his first class. Our speaker said each retreat center, whether Benedictine, Dominican, Franciscan, or Jesuit has its own charism.

He noted that Passionist priests draw strength from Jesus' Passion, where we live in God's love. Their Charter points to bringing a greater knowledge of the Passion of Christ and the suffering of His Mystical Body (the Church, all God's People) being one mystery. We are comforted when we realize at Easter that the One Crucified lives! It was the central moment of our salvation!

Dr. Downey called Christianity the only religion in which a sinless God entered so deeply into human life in the person of Jesus Christ! It gave all our suffering meaning and is more powerful than all darkness. We received Hope everlasting through our Baptism!

He prepared us for Eucharist Adoration by asking ourselves two questions. First, "What brings me to the foot of the Cross?" Second, "How does being there help me find meaning in what's going on in my life and in the world we are living in?"

Before bed we spent an hour in the chapel in Adoration and Benediction before the Blessed Sacrament.

Day two of our Mater Dolorosa retreat began at 7 am with the loud ringing of a bell that was rung by a volunteer going up and down the hallway. We gathered at 7:45 am for Morning Prayer in the chapel. Father Bruno took a group photograph of us at 8 am. Breakfast followed at 8:15 am in the Dining room. We dined on fresh scrambled eggs, a large bagel covered with crème cheese, slices of tasty cooked bacon, homemade oatmeal with butter and brown sugar and milk accompanied by coffee, water, and orange juice. Since we were silent, Dr. Downey read from an uplifting spiritual book to us.

At 9:15 am Dr. Dan Van Dyke spoke to us in Possenti Hall (named for a Passionist saint.) Dr. Van Dyke told us his story. Beginning at age 13, he spent four years at Holy Cross Preparatory Seminary. He learned Latin and Greek there but decided not to become a priest. The next 23 years he served in the U.S. Army. He studied Vietnamese and Korean languages extensively and was stationed in Korea, Panama, Vietnam, and the U.S.A.

After honorable discharge, he worked in the family construction business. Dan then studied theology, becoming a Master Catechist, getting a Liberal Arts degree in 1995, earning a Master’s Degree in Religious Studies, and finally receiving a PhD. at Fuller Theological Seminary.

He said his biography was not to impress us but to show where he was coming from. Dr. Dan reminded us that death is the human act inevitable for us all. Thus we all have the burning question, “Why am I here?” At Holy Cross he learned the meaning of spiritual death. We have called it Mortal or Serious sin. It has three requirements: first, it involves grave matter; second, we must know it is grave; third, we must give our full consent of the will in doing it. Only God knows if we are guilty. Death brings us naked before God. He and we know all about how we lived! But we stand before an almighty, all-powerful, all-loving God!

Dr. Dan described the four gospels as to their origin from oral teaching, parables, and holy stories from divinely inspired sources. They weren’t meant to be simple histories (in our sense of the word,) but to provide the true meaning of Jesus. They overlapped but had different focuses. John, the last written gospel, focused on Jesus’ divinity. We need all sacred scripture for complete understanding!

Our speaker drew a simple diagram with God at the top and humans at the bottom. He stated that all religions have this belief. Revelation is how religions hear God speaking to them. The religions are how we respond to God. Christians place Jesus between us and God. The book called Hebrews calls Jesus the true High Priest. Dr. Dan said the (Catholic) Church is the basic Sacrament of God in the world. He noted that the Church has had times when it was not sacrament. However, Jesus, our High Priest, has helped us overcome the weakness of the world!
