THE GRAND KNIGHT

Brother Knights,

Wishing everybody a Blessed Easter. Let us all continue to build our faith thru the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. I send you this greeting from Japan. Sorry to miss the business meeting and spending Easter with you all. We had a priest on the ship, so we were able to attend the Easter mass.

We survived another Lenten Fish Fry season, I thank all of you who helped. Kudos to all the cooks, servers, kitchen crew, table servers, set up and cleanup crews. Without your help and dedication this event would never happen.

We are at the end of our Columbian year, nominations for the new officers are coming up. Anybody interested, please talk to the nominating committee or any council officer. Also we are looking for directors and committee chairman for several of our Faith in Action Programs.

On the first weekend of May we will be holding our recruitment drive. We need all your help to recruit new members. We need to recruit at least four more new members. The following weekend is our Mother's Day Flower dale. We will need coverage at all the masses to help sell flowers.

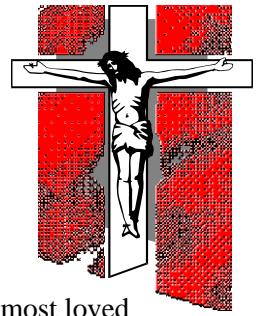

Vivat Jesus

COUNCIL CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Mary The Mother Of Us All

What an encouragement she is. She went from a simple peasant girl to the most loved women of all time. She teaches us to live humbly and to step out in boldness when God calls. She knew what God was calling her to do would require suffering. She knew that her submission would be costly and difficult and yet when the angel came to her (Luke 1: 38) she said “I am the Lords servant. May your word be fulfilled?” She was just a young Jewish girl who probably knew the word of God very well. In Isaiah 7:14 it reads “Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and His name will be called Emmanuel.” Which translated means “God with us.”

Mary was there to comfort Jesus when He came into this world and was near the cross when He took His last breath. (John 19:25). She was a humble servant whose calling required great suffering, she was obedient and is loved for her devotion, and admired for her bravery.

The Magnificent: Mary's Song Luke 1: 46-55

*“My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
For he has been mindful of the humble state of his servant. From now on all generations will call me blessed.*

*For the Mighty One has done great things for me-Holy is His name.
His mercy extends to those who fear him, from generation to generation.
He has performed mighty deeds with His arm; He has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts.*

*He has brought down rulers from their thrones but has lifted up the humble.
He has filled the hungry with good things but has sent the rich away empty.
He has helped His servant Israel, remembering to be merciful to Abraham and His descendants forever, just as He promised our ancestors.”*

Happy Mother's Day

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Dear Brother Knights,

I hope this letter finds you all healthy and in good spirits after Tax Day on April 15th.

The name pulled for “Good of the Order” drawing at our April meeting for $100.00 was Robert Escobar, who wasn’t present. The May drawing will be for $110.00, so be there!

There are still 76 members who haven’t paid their 2019 dues yet. Supreme Council, State Council, and Chapter assessments take a large part of our dues, based on the number of Council members we have on July 1st. Unpaid dues are taking away approx. $3,200.00 from our budget which supports our charitable opportunities.

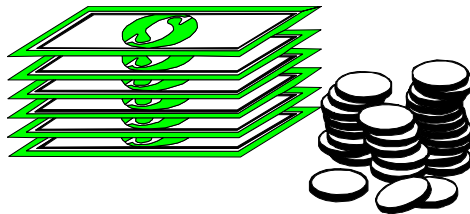

Our Council now has an account funded by member donations to provide dues assistance to help all our Council members having financial difficulty to remain in good standing. So if you are having difficulty paying your 2019 dues, please contact me or our Grand Knight. Phone numbers are in the front of this bulletin, or you can email me with your information. Remember, a current KofC Membership Card is required to participate in any Knights of Columbus functions.

Don’t forget to check out our Monthly Bulletin on our website <http://www.kofc8599.org> as it usually includes pictures from our recent Council events. I hope to see all of you at the next Council Business Meeting in May.

Vivat Jesus!

Your Council Chancellor

Brother Knights,

Daily Reflections as a Knight

Now that the lent is over, some of us are gradually going back to our old habits or practices. The essence of lent is to uplift our spiritual life, and bring us closer to God. One of the things that will help us is to examine our conscience daily. This will no doubt help us develop a deeper love for God. When we love God and rejoice in that love, our desire for God increases. The more we know Him, the more we will want to be like Christ. Remember that faith and love will not only increase the desire to love God and Jesus Christ, also to love one another.

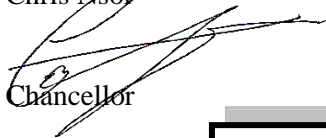

Here are Two Inspiring Catholic quotes:

“Genuine love is demanding, but its beauty lies precisely in the demands it makes.” Pope Francis

“I love You, O my God, and my only desire is to love You until the last breath of my life. I love You, O my infinitely lovable God, and I would rather die loving You, than live without loving You. I love You, Lord and the only grace I ask is to love You eternally...My God, if my tongue cannot say in every moment that I love You, I want my heart to repeat it to You as often as I draw breath.” St. John Vianney

Remain Blessed.

Interview with a Former Planned Parenthood Employee

[Article from “The Daily Caller News Foundation”]

Annette Lancaster started working as a health center manager for a Planned Parenthood clinic in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, in 2015 and left after nine months.

Lancaster was hired to do the clinic’s administrative work, which included hiring, firing, interviewing and managing the staff. She landed in the procedure room, however, shortly after beginning work at Planned Parenthood, Lancaster told TheDCNF. “I was overseeing them [abortions],” Lancaster said.

Lancaster quickly noticed a multitude of errors a few weeks after she started working at Planned Parenthood. “I noticed that there were a lot of cutting of policies and procedures, people would bend the rules for certain things, they weren’t following things cut and dry,” Lancaster said, noting she and a number of staff assisted with medical procedures despite having no training or medical background.

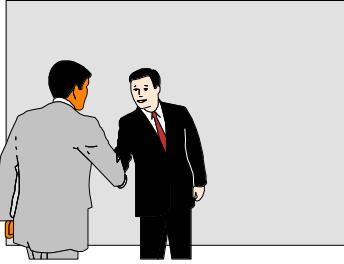

‘I had never been trained’ Lancaster began to struggle after she was asked to perform ultrasounds on women having abortions. “I had never been trained in ultrasound, never had done it before, nobody even really showed me how to do it,” she said. Most of the staff were also trained by doing, according to Lancaster.

In addition to her administrative work, Lancaster began counseling women who came to the clinic. If a woman didn’t want to have an abortion, was unsure or it didn’t seem like the best fit for her, Lancaster would cancel their procedure and require they reschedule for a later date, she told TheDCNF.

Lancaster was “quit-fired” in her words, after leadership became unhappy her abortion numbers were going down. Lancaster said she was eventually called into her boss’s office and told she no longer fit in at the clinic. “It boiled down to the fact that they were not happy because my [abortion] numbers were decreasing,” she told TheDCNF.

Lancaster wanted to change and improve the organization. “I think I stayed as long as I did because of the challenge. I was trying to change the culture ... it was very dark, a lot of dark humor, a lot of dark jokes,” she said. “I thought I could change it, I thought I could make a difference.”

At least five people left Planned Parenthood immediately after Lancaster’s exit, she said. Lancaster is now the director of clinical placements for the masters of nursing program at Duke University School of Nursing.

Membership Director

Dear Brothers,

With are Columbian year coming to a close, it is not too late to ask that friend of yours to joining our Council. Easter is here, and so are new Catholic members. One pitfall to every Catholic member or convert, is not being involved in the Catholic community. The Knights of Columbus are the answer to this. Every man in RCIA should be asked to join and be brought into the largest lay Catholic organization in the world. Our programs invite all Catholics to join together and show the true force of Christ's love to non-Catholics. Think about this, if a women joins our faith, but her husband or family does not? Could we be the evangelizing force? Let's get out and ask those men to join, and provide them and their families with a multifaceted Catholic support system that is desperately needed in today's world.

The method that speaks strongest of Christ is love. As Knights, we should be prepared to let charity be our measure of the new evangelization. In this way, we can truly promote 'a charity that evangelizes. Next Admission (First) Degree, Tuesday, May 7th, at Holy Spirit in Fountain Valley, candidates 7:00pm. Wednesday, May 8th, at St. Columbians Council, Westminster, CA. Candidates 7:00pm. Formation (Second) Degree, Thursday, May 9th, St. Mary's, Huntington Beach, candidates 7:00pm. Sunday, May 26, Father Kass Council, Buena Park, Ca, candidates 2:00pm. At this time I do not have a date for the next Knighthood (Third) Degree.

My Brothers your help is needed in the recruitment drive for our council on May 4th and 5th. If you can please make an effort in helping out in more than the one mass you attend. I am sure some of you could adjust your time for just this one day, please help us. Have you asked that friend of yours to join? If you don't ask, he'll never join. Vivat Jesus!

A Message From Your Council.....Recorder & Respect Life, Justice & Peace Chairman

Please reflect on the following from Dr. Michael Cunningham of Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center:

When stretched beyond your limits, what do you do?

If you're anything like me, there are times in your life when you're feeling battered by all the people, issues, or ideas that are demanding your attention? Whether it's the family activities, work obligations, social expectations, religious or personal demands, economic or political pressures, there can be no doubt that all of us are often under a great deal of pressure to give our attention and commitment to a wide variety of people and issues. It takes great stamina and wisdom from above to evaluate and balance all the expectations that are placed upon us. When we try to evaluate, balance and respond to the many pressures and demands in our life, what measure do we use? How do we decide, among all the clamoring demands, which is worthy of our attention and what kind of response will bring life?

There is a famous passage from the Letter of James in the New Testament that describes some important ways to measure what will be a life-giving response. James tells us that "the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace." (James 3:17-18).

Sometimes the beliefs we cherish and the things we pursue fill us with anger and judgment about others. We become cynical and untrusting. We can even become hardened to the concerns of others and unwilling to acknowledge their sincerity. If we find ourselves locked into these feelings, it's time to reassess our attitudes and commitments. For James reminds us that the wisdom that comes from the Holy Spirit nourishes peace and gentleness within us, mercy toward others, and self-gift so others can thrive.

So, if we're wondering what kind of response the Lord wants from us, just do a quick check on whether our response engenders kindness and peace, or anger and suspicion. Then remember the advice of James. May the wisdom that comes from the Holy Spirit guide us all.

Love and prayers,

Frank J. Faecke
